Sketch of Mr. CALHOUN'S SPEECH.

On the Three Million Bill.

Mr. CALHOUN said that never since our country has been upon the stage of action have we been placed in a more critical position. We were in the midst of a war, and there was a vital question of great doubt and importance. He hoped there would be no time lost in coming to a vote, but that the whole question would be disposed of during the session. Short as it was. The important question was, is a peace to be procured? There were two ways—the one to point out to the enemy the country, and the other to have a defensive position. Which was best?

Mr. C. said it was a great question, and one which he had given his mind to. His judgment was that the latter was the best. The country was in a critical situation

NORTH CAROLINA VOLUNTEERS.—On Saturday last, about 12 o'clock, the Yancy County Company, Capt. BRADDOCK, arrived here. They were entertained at Camp Adam, with a Collation prepared in anticipation of their arrival. After which, at 3 o'clock, they were escorted by the Independent Company, the Riflemen, and a large concourse of citizens, to the Steamer Wm. B Meares, Capt. McRae, in which they took passage, and in a few minutes were on their way to Wilmington, —not however before Capt. BRADDOCK and Lieut. KEITH had returned thanks for the politeness shown them here, in brief but appropriate addresses.

The company numbered but 54, but they are a band of hardy mountaineers, who will do their State and themselves credit whenever service is to be performed. We endeavored to obtain a list of their names, as we had endeavored to get the names of the Cabarrus Company, but without success. The officers are,

THOMAS BRADDOCK, Captain.
A. F. KEITH, 1st Lieutenant.
JOHN C. KEESEE, 2d Lieutenant.
EPHRAIM YANCEY, 2d Lieutenant.
ROBERT G. BRITAIN, 1st Sergeant.

On the same Boat, Major S. OGLES proceeded to Wilmington, to take his place in the Regiment. Asst. Lieut. PARRY and the sick members of the Cabarrus company, who have recovered, departed in search of their company.

MORE DEATHS OF VOLUNTEERS.—We regret to learn that Mr Walter Jenkins, of this town, a private in Capt. Kirkpatrick's Company, and Jesse D. Battle, a private in one of the Edgecombe companies, died at Smithville a few days ago.—The sickness goes on here, abated very much.

Lieut. Col. FISHER has arrived at Smithville from his residence in Buncombe county.

Transactions of Treaties.—Lieut. S. L. Fremont, Governor elect of a part, has chartered the Schr. E. S. Fowle positively, and the Brig Belle and Schr. Franklin conditionally, to take a part of the N. C. Volunteer Regiment to Point Isabel. These Vessels are from 150 to 200 tons each. The Fowle is expected here to-day (Monday) at the earliest, when she will be dispatched in the course of the afternoon with the two Cabarrus companies. Capt. PARKER was appointed U. S. Recruiting Officer, and acted in that Row immediately. Quartermaster Sergeant in the Regiment.

The Raleigh correspondent of a letter published in the Standard, says it is to be supposed that the Convention of Delegates from the several counties of the Roanoke and Albemarle Canal Company, now assembling at the Rocky Mount, will be conducted in a spirit of liberality and magnanimity
